CLUB NOTES

Shocking luck with injuries

North End are still unbeaten, but no one can fairly say this is due to any kindly smiles from fortune. Although only four League matches have been played several team changes have had to be made and after only 10 days of the new season we had as many as five members of the Cup Final team on the unfit list.

In turn, Alex Dawson, Alan Kelly, Jim Smith, Alex Ashworth and Howard Kendall have had to cry off, two of them while a game was in progress. In successive home games we have been reduced to 10 men, but thanks to magnificent fighting spirit, which earned, general admiration, a point was saved in each match.

It is reasonable to claim that if North End had been at full strength for the full period of the games with Rotherham and Cardiff City both points would have been gained. On each occasion we played superior attacking football and at no time showed any sign of either dismay or an inferiority complex.

Our team might well have come away from Cardiff with a victory instead of a deserved 3-3 draw but for Kelly and Smith having had their effectiveness reduced by knocks which kept them out of the next two matches. Thus, while it is pleasing to have collected five points, we have something to lament.

In other words, but for the handicap of injuries North End might have been at the top of Division II this morning with a 100 per cent record, instead of having forfeited three points against the run of the play. There can be little doubt that once we get a settled team we shall be acting as pace-makers in the promotion race.

As it is there is reason for satisfaction in the way the reserves called in met the demands made upon them. In balance and blend very little was lost. Brian Godfrey especially has fulfilled the promise he showed last season as a reliable stand-in. He is the leading scorer with five good goals in his three appearances.

His colleagues John Barton, John Donnelly and Ernie Hannigan also have proved their worth. Three of Barton's saves in the Cardiff match at Deepdale, from Hole and Allchurch, were first-class, and newcomer Hannigan delighted everyone with a skilful display on his English League debut. He fitted in extremely well.

North End's away performances suggest a repetition of last season's good form on other grounds. We had the highest away goals record in the Division, the next nearest to our total of 42 in 21 games being Rotherham's 38, which was more than Preston's aggregate at home. Eight in two matches is a great start.

Much excellent football was played by the team at Ipswich in achieving a 5-1 win against a team relegated from the First Division. We enjoyed the running and made the best of it to the extent of a 4-0 interval lead, and increased it to 5-0. It was pleasing to read many favourable Press reports on the quality of a display which put North End in the best possible light.

KNOW YOUR TEAM 3. Alan Kelly

Alan Kelly, pride of the Emerald Isle and a firm favourite at Deepdale, had as shattering a Football League baptism as any goalkeeper in recent years. Signed from Drumcondra with big John O'Neil on April 24th, 1958, when he was 21, this quietly-spoken Dublin-born recruit who was to play many times for Eire, had to wait until February, 1961, for his first chance in North End's premier side. He played at Hillsborough and Sheffield Wednesday won by 5-1. Two months later, at Tottenham, he made his second appearance through Fred Else crying off half an hour before the game. The present Blackburn goalkeeper had been injured during our 3-2 win at Manchester the previous day (Good Friday) and Kelly was sent for as a precaution. Much the same thing happened preceding a Cup-tie at Swansea when he set off on a 6 a.m. car journey from Preston and arrived an hour before the match. The then mighty 'Spurs won by 5-0, getting three quick early goals. But the management had faith in Kelly, based on his excellence in Central League football, and our agile always alert and often supremely efficient goalkeeper has justified it by a high standard in most of his 122 League appearances for the club.

OUR VISITORS—Plymouth Argyle

Although Plymouth Argyle, our welcome visitors of to-day from far-away Devon, began playing football when the North End "Old Invincibles" were beginning to flourish way back in 1886, our paths did not cross in the Football League until our fourth spell in the Second Division, between the wars (1925-1934).

The only meeting before then was in the F.A. Cup first round at Home Park in January, 1913, Preston then being in Division II (relegated and up again in one season) and Argyle in the Southern League Division I, being champions in their tenth year.

Although Plymouth must have been a good team, considering that they proved themselves superior to such sides as West Ham, Portsmouth, Southampton, Brentford, Millwall, Reading, Brighton, Watford and many that joined the subsequent League Division III (1920-21), their 2-0 defeat of North End was a big surprise.

How fortunes change: the bottom teams in the Southern League that season were Brentford and Stoke, and both were relegated to Division II, the championship of which was won by Cardiff City (promoted), with Southend second, Swansea third.

Argyle attained League Second Division status in 1930, after many disappointments. John Bunyan wrote: "There's no discouragement shall make him once relent his first avow'd intent to be a Pilgrim . . . " Well, the "pilgrims" of Plymouth finally went up after creating a League record for discouragement — for six seasons in succession they were runners up (second place) in the League Division III (South). This run started in 1921-2 when promotion — only one team could go up — was missed on goal average.

North End won their first League game at Home Park in 1930-31, but were in dire straits on going there in December the following season. Facing relegation to Division III we had just signed Ted Harper and Dick Rowley, two international forwards from Tottenham Hotspur, and their debut was at Plymouth.

Argyle won 2-1, but the game was the turning point in our fortunes. Following is the complete record of our League matches with Plymouth :—

Year	Division	home	away	Year	Division	home	away
1930-31	II	2-1	2-1	1949-50	II	0-0	0-1
1931-32	II	5-2	1-2	1961-62	II	1-1	0-1
1932-33	II	3-0	0-5	1962-63	II	0-0	1-7
1933-34	II	1-1	0-0	1963-64	II	0-0	2-0

It will be noticed that only two goals — one by each side — have been scored in the four post-war meetings at Deepdale, and that the last five visits have each yielded Plymouth a draw. An examination of the goals for and against reveals that 17 of the aggregate of 40 by both sides were scored in only three games.

Plymouth last season never achieved anything like their 7-1 against us the previous year, three being the most they scored in any match. In fact they finished with the lowest total of goals in the Division — 45, and these were shared by 12 players, Lord (late of Crewe Alex.) being top scorer with a modest eight.

This season Argyle have fared much better, standing next to North End in the table at the moment with five points from four games and five goals to four. A 2-1 win at Huddersfield on Wednesday put them in a good mood for to-day.

PLYMOUTH ARGYLE PLAYERS

The only newcomer to the team is ANTHONY KEITH BOOK, an experienced defender from Bath, signed as recently as August 8th by manager Malcolm Allison. Most of the players are far from home in glorious Devon, their birthplaces ranging from Perth to Cornwall, Brighton to Oldham.

DAVID McLAREN, one of three goalkeeping brothers, shares with full back DOUGLAS BAIRD the satisfaction of being a Scot.

Outside right STUART BRACE was reared at Taunton and played for Taunton Town. Inside forward MICHAEL TREBILCOCK was recruited from Cornwall, and outside left NICHOLAS JENNINGS from Wellington, Somerset. Except for Book, their colleagues have had other League experience with clubs far from Plymouth.

Nottingham Forest provided Baird and inside left WILLIAM COBB. McLaren and centre half JOHN NEWMAN, who tops 12 stone, were signed from Leicester City. The wing halves are DUNCAN NEALE, born Brighton, from Newcastle United, and CLIFF JACKSON, from his native Swindon.

Centre forward FRANK LORD, a big fellow who stands six feet and has nearly 13 stone to back his punchy style, was a capture from Crewe, with which club he made 20 League appearances last season, scoring seven goals. At one time he was very much in the transfer news.

OLD FAVOURITES 3. Willie Cunningham

Nearly all the years Tom Finney was blinding the opposition with football science his most fervent admirer (unless our manager takes precedence in regarding T.F. as the greatest) was the Tom Finney of P.N.E's defence. For just as the brilliantly versatile England winger dazzled in the attack, so Willie Cunningham consistently shone as one of the finest full backs North End have ever had. He was in a class of his own in modern times as a rare blend of rugged shrewd effectiveness, a master-footballer in his own right, yet when he came from Airdrie in the summer of 1949, called up from the pit to be told Preston wanted him when he did not even know where Preston was, he was so bull-at-a-gatish that the fans promptly called him "Cowboy." The name stuck, and typified the affection in which Scotland's eventual captain was held by many thousands for his skilful play and absolutely whole-hearted effort and devotion to the team in over 400 League appearances. Willie's career is a pointer to the younger end — learn and improve. He helped North End to win promotion in 1951, played on the losing side in the 1954 Cup Final and will never be forgotten.
